● Why Studio Namad

We, Namad Studio, consist of a young, creative and active team in areas such as business modeling and its strategies, IT teams, website and application developers, design and graphic design team, and photography and filming crew and under the management of Mehrdad Salehi, we officially started our activity since 2015.

Mehrdad, who received his bachelor's degree in graphic design from Soura University in 2011 started his professional photography career since 2006 and during these 15 years, his collection eventually turned into a studio and finally to a digital marketing agency which is self-sufficiently active in several areas.
